

I listen only to K-Love when in the car and in our home. It provides encouraging words that uplift me every day. Without the secular advertisements it causes a sort of insulation from every day problems and annoyances. Helps to keep our minds focused on what is good and reminds us that we have someone that can & will keep us protected each day of our lives.